Change of the tenure from Brahmadaya to Devadaya is not an indispensible preliminary to accepting the endowment. I believe there are many cases of endowments of Inam lands accepted without any such conversion. The Muzrai Commissioner's recommendation may therefore be accepted.

To

of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

Revenue Department.

Sir,

In submitting herewith correspondence ending with letter No.R.C.C (W). 3147/23-24 dated the 2nd instant from the Deputy Commissioner Kolar District, I have the honor to state that Jodi Thammaganahalli a hamlet attached to Holur village which was endowed by the Jodidars of Holur village in the year 1892 for the benefit of the Sri Lakshminarayana swami temple at the place was taken under Government management in the year 1902-03 by the then Amildar A. Mrityunjaya Iyer without proper authority and as the village was "Becharak" it was leased out to the Jodidars themselves for grazing purposes which realized about 70 or 80 Rs. a year and after defraying from this amount the Jodi etc., due to Government from the village the balance was credited to the temple for being utilized towards the expenses of the temple.

The Jodidars are stated to be anxious now to take up the lands of the village for cultivation on payment of survey assessment and with this view have got the lands surveyed bearing the cost of boundry marks etc., The question of granting the lease having come up before the Deputy Commissioner he requests that Government orders may be obtained for accepting the village as (Jodi Thimmaganahalli) an endowment to the temple and for treating it as Devadaya inam. He reports that arrangements will be made for leasing out the village to the best advantage of the institution after the receipt of Government orders accepting the endowment.

-he

The Jodidars have no objection even now to the endowment they have already made and are prepared to execute an agreement in favour of the temple. In view of the fact that the village came under Government management so far back as 1902-03 Orders may be kindly issued for the acceptance of the endowment without altering the tenure of the --- village as recommended by the Deputy Commissioner.

The enclosures received with the Deputy Commissioners letter -- under reference ~~xx~~ are herewith submitted for perusal and kind return.

I have the honor to be,
